

any vacancy in said office not herein provided for provision may be made by law; and if such vacancy should occur without such provision being made, the Legislature shall be empowered by the Secretary of State for the purpose of filling said vacancy.

Sec. 8. The Governor shall be the commander-in-chief of the land and naval forces of the State, and may call out the militia to repel invasions, suppress insurrections, and enforce the execution of the laws, but shall not take the command in person without the consent of the Legislature.

Sec. 9. He shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed.

Sec. 10. He shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint all civil and military officers of the State, whose appointment or election is not otherwise herein provided for, unless a different mode of appointment be prescribed by law creating the office.

Sec. 11. In case of any vacancy during the recess of the Senate, in any office which the Governor has power to fill, he shall appoint some suitable person to said office whose commission shall continue in force until the end of the next session of the Legislature, or until some other person is appointed to the same office, which ever shall first occur, and the nomination of the person thus appointed during the recess, or of some other person in his place, shall be made to the Senate within thirty days after the next meeting of the Legislature.

Sec. 12. No person after being rejected by the Senate shall be again nominated for the same office at the same session, unless at the request of the Senate, or be appointed to the same office during the recess of the Legislature.

Sec. 13. All civil officers appointed by the Governor and Senate shall be nominated to the Senate within fifty days from the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature, and their term of office shall commence on the first Monday of May next ensuing their appointment, except the Inspectors of Tobacco, which shall commence on the first Monday of March, and continue for two years, (unless removed from office,) and until their successors respectively qualify according to law.

Sec. 14. The Governor may suspend or arrest any military officer of the State for disobedience of orders, or other military offence, and may remove him in pursuance of the sentence of a court-martial; and may remove for incompetency or misconduct, all civil officers who received appointment from the Executive for a term of years.
